What makes them tick?

Judith Mitchell, Principal

Judy is passionate about many things, but her clients, design, and exploring the world are at the top of her list. Her expertise and dedication have earned the trust that fuels many of our most important national client relationships.

Thomas H. Kasznia, Principal

Tom is an unrelenting advocate for his clients and his teams. Even when the going gets tough, he always manages to keep things fun. This knack for motivating and connecting with people has fostered many of our long term employee and client relationships.

Donald E. Pikul, AIA, Senior Associate

Don delivers his projects on time and within budget, and always with his signature, no-nonsense style. As Technical Director, he is also the go-to guy for many architectural issues. Don is a registered architect in 20 states.

Rocco Tunzi, AIA, Senior Associate

“What would we do without Rocco?” are words you often hear in our office. He operates with a quiet and unassuming style, but his ability to translate design concepts into built form is second to none. With his artful details, he elevates our work to a poetic level.

Tim Wolfe, Senior Associate

Tim started at the firm as junior designer and has grown into his leadership role. He brings a steady hand and an eye for smart, ordered solutions. With his approachable personal style, he makes clients feel welcome in the world of design.

Robert F. Yennerell, AIA, Senior Associate

Sophisticated, kind and worldly, Rob is an architect's architect and a true gentleman. This seasoned project manager is a consummate project leader, with a refined eye and a gentle, professional approach.
